

STRAP LINE

Tiny Ring is an endless racer with simple one touch controls, a car that can only steer left, has no brakes and gets faster with every lap of the track.

DESCRIPTION

Wait for the lights to turn from red to green and speed away from the starting line, but then you find out your car can only turn left, there are no brakes and your car is not stopping. Touch your phone screen just long enough to turn the race car left around each bend to successfully complete a lap of the track.

Your challenge continues as your race car gets faster with every successful lap, but how many laps of the track can you successfully navigate before you crumple and crash?

In the Tiny Ring get the perfect angle, don't hit the sides and lap that track!
